with any other agency's authority or responsibility (for example, that of the Administrator of General Services under the Federal Property and Administrative Services Act).

17.503 Determinations and findings requirements.

- (a) Each Economy Act order shall be supported by a Determination and Finding (D&F). The D&F shall state that—
- (1) Use of an interagency acquisition is in the best interest of the Government; and
- (2) The supplies or services cannot be obtained as conveniently or economically by contracting directly with a private source.
- (b) If the Economy Act order requires contract action by the servicing agency, the D&F must also include a statement that at least one of the following circumstances applies:
- (1) The acquisition will appropriately be made under an existing contract of the servicing agency, entered into before placement of the order, to meet the requirements of the servicing agency for the same or similar supplies or services:
- (2) The servicing agency has capabilities or expertise to enter into a contract for such supplies or services which is not available within the requesting agency; or
- (3) The servicing agency is specifically authorized by law or regulation to purchase such supplies or services on behalf of other agencies.
- (c) The D&F shall be approved by a contracting officer of the requesting agency with authority to contract for the supplies or services to be ordered, or by another official designated by the agency head, except that, if the servicing agency is not covered by the Federal Acquisition Regulation, approval of the D&F may not be delegated below the senior procurement executive of the requesting agency.

17.504 Ordering procedures.

(a) Before placing an Economy Act order for supplies or services with another Government agency, the requesting agency shall make the D&F required in 17.503. The servicing agency may require a copy of the D&F to be furnished with the order.

- (b) The order may be placed on any form or document that is acceptable to both agencies. The order should include—
- (1) A description of the supplies or services required;
 - (2) Delivery requirements;
- (3) A funds citation;
- (4) A payment provision (see 17.505); and
- (5) Acquisition authority as may be appropriate (see 17.504(d)).
- (c) The requesting and servicing agencies should agree to procedures for the resolution of disagreements that may arise under interagency acquisitions, including, in appropriate circumstances, the use of a third-party forum. If a third party is proposed, consent of the third party should be obtained in writing.
- (d) When an interagency acquisition requires the servicing agency to award a contract, the following procedures also apply:
- (1) If a justification and approval or a D&F (other than the requesting agency's D&F required in 17.503) is required by law or regulation, the servicing agency shall execute and issue the justification and approval or D&F. The requesting agency shall furnish the servicing agency any information needed to make the justification and approval or D&F.
- (2) The requesting agency shall also be responsible for furnishing other assistance that may be necessary, such as providing information or special contract terms needed to comply with any condition or limitation applicable to the funds of the requesting agency.
- (3) The servicing agency is responsible for compliance with all other legal or regulatory requirements applicable to the contract, including
- (i) Having adequate statutory authority for the contractual action, and
- (ii) Complying fully with the competition requirements of part 6 (see 6.002). However, if the servicing agency is not subject to the Federal Acquisition Regulation, the requesting agency shall verify that contracts utilized to meet its requirements contain provisions protecting the Government from
